Now only a memory, the Monday sleet-snow gave the kids of Milam County a half-day of slosh to catch colds in.

But the cheeks became rosy and the caps were pulled down over the ears, the galoshes apparent one of the few non-rainy days of the year, the coats zipped tight to the chin, arms just below straight out in a bundle of winterwear.

If there had been enough of the sleet, there would have been some icemen. But alas, ice does not roll up in a ball like snow.

No doubt some tried. But everybody settled to the serious business of sliding down from up, testing the frosty surface of icy puddles, hardly frozen at all, but worthy of a walk which, bootless, meant wet feet.

Monday night, when the melt was complete, lines of shoes around radiators and heaters remained the only testimony to the morning's condition.

Red were the feet, risking a burn to get warm after a day of vague frostbite.

Wishing the ice might still be there, kids turned to lessons or ubiquitous television, the inclement amnesty ended.

School was back in session Tuesday.

110-110-110

Comments continue favorable to The Herald's offset production and semi-weekly editions, which are distinctly local in content. The Herald is extending local coverage to about 115 local stories a week, compared to a previous average of about 90 in one edition.

We are gradually adding more pictures each edition, until there will be at least a picture for each page of an edition.

Beefing up a newspaper in inflationary times is a considerable challenge, and 110 joins with Herald staffers in appreciating the numerous favorable comments on what is slated to be the best-looking Herald in history.

Seems some Russians are trying to slow the consumption of vodka, even dry up the place, or Moscow, where guzzling the 100 proof plus stuff is standard tribute to a good time. Ask visiting U. S. astronauts who toasted with Soviet cosmonauts last year.

Komsomolskaya Pravda, the government-owned youth newspaper, seems to favor tax subsidies with prohibitionist efforts. Of this, one Comrade comments: "They want metostopdrinking and pay for it too? They're crazy."

ICE-GLAZED CURBS and streets get the sand treatment early Monday by Juan Garcia, left, and Lionel Edwards. Even the City Streets Dept. truck slipped and slid on the slick streets before a bright sun melted most of the sleet and ice by noon.

Police Investigate Local Robberies

Lafferty To Head '70-71 Chamber

Rev. James Lafferty, pastor of Cameron First Baptist Church, is the 1970-71 president of Cameron Chamber of Commerce, following a Chamber board election Monday.

First vice president is Robert Ellett and second vice president is Don G. Humble, both attorneys in Cameron.

Six new directors, elected by Chamber membership ballot early in January, are: LaVert McKinney, Lester Williams, James Bledsoe, Miss Mildred Thornton, James Camp and Eugene Smitherman.

Rev. Lafferty moved from the first vice president's chair, succeeding Henry Litzman, the 1969-70 president. The formal change of office will be at the annual Cameron Chamber dinner in March.

Icy Roads Call Road Crews Out

Highway and street department crews are the unsung heroes of the 18 hours this weekend when ice and sleet held Milam County traffic to a crawl and in some cases, a standstill.

DPS Patrolman Leroy Broadus, called out of a warm bed at 2 a.m. Monday, praised Texas Highway Department crews who worked all night in an effort to sand county bridges and underpasses.

Broadus said no major accidents were reported while the icing conditions lasted, although there were many incidents of vehicles stranded in ditches, on highways, and at underpasses.

The worst congestion built up at the Highway 36 railroad underpass just inside the Milam County line north of Buckholts, Patrolman Broadus said about 20 cars stacked up, unable to travel over the thick ice under the structure.

Highway department trucks spread sand and gravel there and also at the underpass in Milano, where traffic was stopped for a while during the freezing early hours.

Heavy sleet started falling around 6 p.m. Sunday, and soon built up a heavy coating of ice on streets and highways. Traffic consisted mostly of trucks, Broadus said. One truck partially blocked traffic on South 36 when it slid crossways on the road.

In Cameron, local drivers were careful and only one accident was reported by police. A car slid into the gas pumps at Bargain Oil Co. on the Temple highway but no injuries were reported.

Street Department crews sanded slick corners and streets, and most of the ice was melted by noon.

Store Loss Report At $1200

An early morning burglary of the Western Auto Store in Cameron on Sunday netted thieves $1200 in merchandise, including rifles, pistols, and shotguns.

Cameron police also reported an attempted burglary of a local house on Friday night, and theft of athletic equipment from the high school gym on Saturday morning.

Police are investigating the robbery which was discovered at 10 a.m. Sunday by Albert Hajovsky, owner of the store.

Entrance to the store was gained by breaking the lock on the back door. The store is equipped with a burglar alarm, but a relay switch stuck that night and the alarm failed to work.

Police believe the robbery took place between 2 and 3 a.m. Sunday. Otis McDonald, owner of a plumbing shop around the corner from Western Auto, was sleeping in his shop that night and told police Monday morning that he heard noise about that time.

Police reported that McDonald turned on floodlights at the back of his shop, and heard what sounded like a pickup truck driving off, however he did not call the police.

Merchandise taken from the store included shotguns, rifles, pistols (about 21), a quantity of 22 ammunition, three eight-track stereo tape players, one automobile radio, three chain saws, and approximately 30 watches.

Police arrested Vernia L. Williams of Corpus Christi Friday night after he attempted to break into the home of Mrs. Lucille Edwards at 1306 West 19th St.

Mrs. Edwards called the police at 10:48 p.m. when she discovered the man trying to get into her house. Police Sgt. Felipe Martinez and Officer Truman White arrested Williams and he was charged with attempted burglary in Milam County Court.

Basketballs and uniforms were reported stolen from the Yoe High athletic department Saturday morning while fourth and fifth grade boys were practicing in the gym.

Yoe Principal Alvis Fuquay said two basketballs and the uniforms have not been recovered. He said steps are being taken to prevent possible future thefts while the gym is being used.

Milam Signs 59.7 Vote

Milam County has registered 59.7 percent of its potential electorate, according to a survey by the Texas Democratic Party.

Mrs. James A. McMullen, chairman of "Operation: Everybody", reports that Milam County is eighth in Group 4 counties, generally in the Central Texas area.

This "Operation" is a project of the State Democratic Executive Committee.

State-wide goal is to have 4,250 Texans registered by the time the 123-day voter registration period ends, which is Saturday January 31.

More than half of the state-wide goal has been reached, one official said. Registration forms are at the County tax assessor's office in Milam Courthouse.

Gold, silver and bronze plaques will be awarded to the counties which exceed their quotas by the highest margin in the registration drive, Mrs. McMullen said.

Yoe Downs Elgin 63-52

It's three down and seven to go for the Cameron Yoemen and they're off to a flying start, winning their third district game Tuesday night over Elgin, 63-52.

Johnny Steamer led scoring with 22 points, and Robert Bra-shear added 16.

The Elgin B team fell to Cameron B team, 50-43, with Ronnie Gilbert scoring 15 points.

The Yoemen take on Georgetown here on Friday night in Yoe gym.

A Downtown Theatre....

With the Milam Folk Fete programming under way, it is a good time to examine other needs for recreation in Cameron.

One of those needs is a theatre, a downtown theatre which can bring first-run movies to a growing interest in local entertainment.

It has been about eight years since Cameron has had a downtown theatre. A town of 6,000 ought to be able to do something about such a need.

Is there any real need for Cameronites by the hundred to weekly drive 35 to 60 miles to see a first-run movie in a regular theatre. Our outdoor movie theatre is a service, particularly in the summer.

But a year-round movie house should find support in modern Cameron. TV is less an attraction than in the early '60's. People are somewhat surfeited.

Surely, someone would find Cameron a reasonable market for a theatre.

If Waiting Makes It Good...

Planning on dam structures in Elm Creek Watershed are moving one step further.

The U. S. Soil Conservation Service informs officials of the four-county Watershed plans will be prepared.

It is nearer the actual commitment of almost $8 millions of federal funds to build the structures to control the overflow of Elm Creek and other tributaries in that area of Northwest Milam County, East Bell County and southern fringes of McLennan and Falls Counties.

Said many times before, the benefits will accrue for the farmer in this area and for outdoorsmen, fishermen and campers who will find ample development for recreation at the facilities to be developed.

This phase of planning will take about a year, officials advise.

The crucial vote came on a third try about a year ago, after being defeated in the early '60's.

These 200,000 acres of Watershed, one of the last in the Central Texas area where overflow is an identifiable problem, will create a whole new basis for agriculture and recreation.

It will attract people and serve those already there. If we must wait for good things, this is one project which must be good, considering the decade it took to bring it off.

CAR INSPECTION DEADLINE

April 15 is the deadline for motor vehicle inspections.

Texas adopted the annual inspection program September 1. Vehicles inspected in January will bear stickers with "No. 1" and won't be up for reinspection before January, 1971. All cars which still have old stickers on the right side of the windshield have not been reinspected in compliance with the new law, and owners have until April 15 to visit an approved inspection station.

DRAFT CALL

February draft call for Texas is 929. No man will be ordered for induction with a random sequence number higher than 60, says Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director.

February quota is an increase of 573 from January, which will be filled January 16-30 with men who have random sequence numbers no higher than 30.

State quota for pre-induction physical and mental examinations in February is 9,359, up from 5,800 in January. In filling the call for examination, draft boards will order 1-A and 1-A-0 men of 1970 random selection sequence group before men born in 1951. The 1970 group contains men born 1944-1950. National call for February is 19,000.

Dateline Austin....

Rising Costs Threaten AFDC Welfare Budget

AUSTIN

Skyrocketing welfare costs may hit the $1 billion a year mark in Texas within a decade, a State Welfare Board member predicts.

Burton G. Hackney, Welfare Commissioner, sees a very real possibility that his budget for the important "Aid to Families with Dependent Children" program may be exhausted this biennium. If that happens, another cut in AFDC benefits may be necessary.

"The $80 million a year welfare ceiling (approved by Texas voters only five months ago) now seems completely unrealistic (in view of) demands we will have to face within the next four to five years," said Louis R. Sarazan of Fort Worth, Welfare Board secretary.

Sarazan's comments followed reports by Hackney of rising costs in all the major state assistance programs.

Total public assistance payments during the past fiscal year came to $364.3 million, some 25 per cent of which was paid with state funds.

Welfare rolls have increased at the rate of 10,262 a month in AFDC since August. Federal court cases and agency rulings relaxing eligibility requirements, together with increased population, account for most of the growth.

AIRPORT AID

Texas Aeronautics Commission granted five requests for airport construction and improvement grants, each to be matched at least 50-50 by the local entities.

Granted were the applications from:

Brenham—for construction of an additional apron and taxiways and extension of the runway, $27,500 (the maximum allowable grant under the appropriation);

Dumas—acquisition of additional land and removal of a power line, $9,900;

Marshall—restoration of runway lighting and acquisition of additional land for runway extension, $13,200;

Rockwall—acquisition of an additional clear-zone easement and resurfacing of the existing runway, $9,600; and White Bluff (Hill County Water Control and Improvement District)—construction of a new airport $27,500.

Application from Beeville for a $16,000 grant to construct a taxiway and grade a crosswind landing strip was delayed until the town assures the Commission it will eliminate a power line crossing the end of one runway.

OIL PRODUCTION STEADY

Railroad Commission set the statewide oil allowable for February at 68 per cent of potential, highest for the month since 1953.

Figure is the same as for January. It will permit a maximum production of 3,732,919 barrels a day. Actual production is estimated at 3,250,500 a day.

None of the 14 major purchasers of crude asked for an increased allowable. Ten recommended the same factor and four saw a declining need for the month. Big buyers suggested a daily allocation of 3,225,192 barrels.

COURTS SPEAK

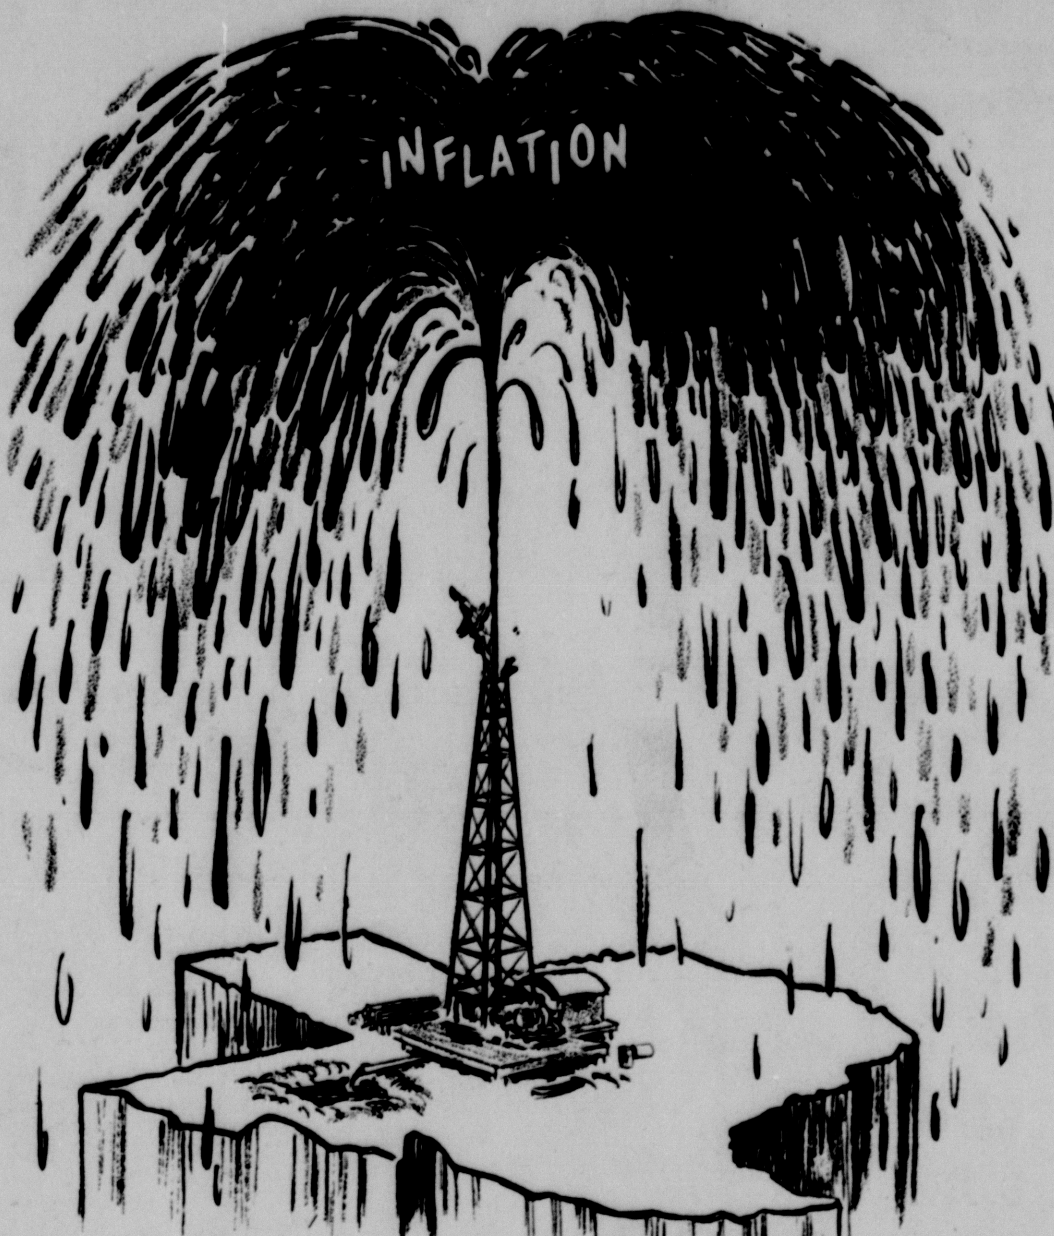

State Supreme Court set February 11 to hear arguments in a court case testing whether governmental units (Brownsville Navigation District) are immune from lawsuits for breach of contract.

High court held that a Jefferson County woman who claimed she got scalp blisters from using "New Dawn" hair coloring was not entitled to damages.

Also set for February 11 review is the appeal of a Marshall theater operator from a $31,250 damage verdict awarded a girl who was hit by a liquor bottle thrown from a movie house balcony at a midnight show.

District Judge Herman Jones of Austin denied an injunction to prevent construction of a golf course at Meridian State Park. Federal court earlier dismissed the suit.

Third Court of Civil Appeals upheld a lower court decision that a Houston bus company must get a Railroad Commission

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Dear editor:

According to an article I read in a newspaper that fell out of my neighbor's mail box and landed on the running board of my car -- if you remind me cars don't have running boards anymore I'll suggest you attend to your business, I'll put the paper back, regardless of where it landed -- Nasa, the space agency, is letting off 50,000 workers, due to a slowing down in future moon landings and other space shots.

I knew this was going to happen. Practically everybody in the world watched the first moon landing, only about a third as many watched the second, the others went to bed figuring they'd see it on tape some time the next day. The third shot will attract even fewer.

It's like discovering the North Pole. The first man that did it was a hero, the second was acclaimed too, but now flying over the North Pole is about as eventful as flying over Ben Arnold. The moon just doesn't have enough to offer to keep man's interest, and therefore his money, up very long. It's sodead it doesn't even have any germs worth inventing a vaccine against down here on earth. The rocks brought back have made a lot of geologists happy, but geologists must have been doing something before they got the moon rocks.

Getting there and getting back is the big adventure, and since we've already proved we can do that, future trips may become about like mountain climbing -- exciting mostly to the people doing the climbing.

Now I've almost gotten away from what I started out to say. It's about those 50,000 workers being let off by the space agency.

Here's a fine set of workers, trained and skilled and eager to stay busy, and we've got to find something truly beneficial we could use them for.

I intend to spend the next few days figuring on this problem and next week will report on any ideas I've come up with.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

certificate for space center tours and other routes outside the city. All three judges wrote their own opinions, one dissenting.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES

Fraternal and veterans organizations do not have to collect sales taxes on mixed drinks served to members, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin ruled in a new opinion.

Martin also said that a new law requiring free kindergarten programs during the 1970's did not allow for all "practical problems" and may need adjustments.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded that:

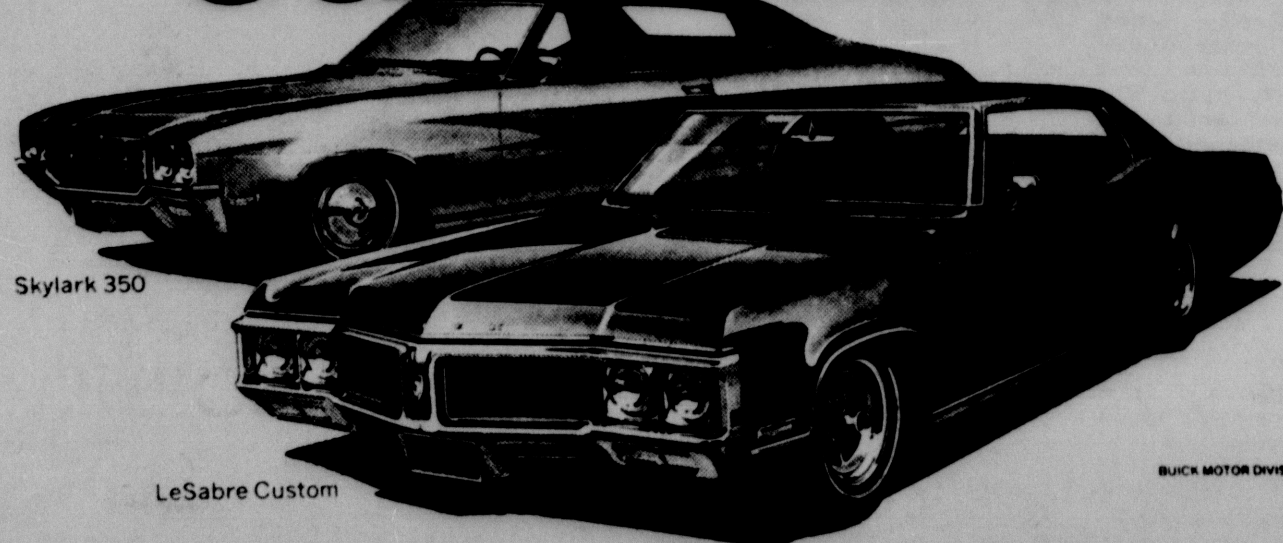

-- State Board of Insurance is required to fix and maintain fair, reasonable and just insurance premium rates, and auditing may become a means of enforcement, even where the agency obligation under law extends only to approval of forms.

-- Majority of the members of Burnet County Hospital Authority Board of directors must be appointed by the board and remaining members by the Burnet County Commissioners Courts.

-- Architects are excluded from provisions of the Texas Professional Corporation Act but may incorporate under the Texas Business Corporation Act.

-- An application for registration as a professional engineer in the state meets legal requirements of the Engineering Practice Act when the applicant changes the affidavit by marking out the words "sworn upon oath" and writes in "affirmed".

WASHINGTON, D.C.--The following letters were recently answered by the Department of State:

Fisheries Attaches

I hope that it will not be necessary to close or disrupt any of our four Fisheries Attache offices throughout the world.

C.E.J.
Washington, D.C.

Dear C.E.J.:

Instructions to reduce our personnel overseas present us with a number of very difficult choices. We assure you, however, that the Department of State recognizes the activities of Fisheries Attaches throughout the world and is taking steps to ensure that these activities will continue to be properly carried out.

The reduction of overseas personnel is predicated on the pressing need to reduce the United States presence abroad.

While it is contemplated that the Fisheries Attaches presently posted in Abidjan (Ivory Coast) and Mexico City will be relocated in the United States, they will continue to have the same responsibilities in the foreign areas in which they are presently assigned. In order to accomplish this, the necessary travel funds are being set aside to permit their travel to the regions on a frequent basis.

The Department of State will follow the new arrangements closely and will be alert to any possibilities of improving or adjusting them over the next few years. No change in the status of the Fisheries Attache post in Tokyo and Copenhagen is contemplated.

Love Story

I have been corresponding with a girl in Poland. I think there could be a possibility of marriage. I would like to know if it is possible to bring her to this country and what procedures I would have to go through in order to do so.

W.D.H. III
Westminster, Md.

Dear W.D.H.:

In order to emigrate to this country, a Polish citizen must have a Polish emigration passport and a United States immigration visa. The passport must be applied for with the local police authorities in Poland. Your friend can at the same time apply for the U.S. visa at the Consular Section of the American Embassy, Aleje Ujazdowskie 29/31, Warsaw, Poland. She should write to the Embassy to request detailed information about visas and how to apply. The Embassy will be happy to furnish her with the necessary information and forms and will, depending on the particular circumstances, advise her as to what documents she should submit in support of her visa application.

Cancer Society To Meet

LUXURY BUYING SHOWS INCREASE

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Almost one out of every three American households are enjoying color television sets. This reflects a 23.9 per cent increase from a year earlier. Apparently, many of those who previously had purchased black and white sets are now purchasing color sets. The percentage of black and white sets in American households is gradually declining.

FINANCE FACTS, a monthly newsletter on consumer behavior published by the National Consumer Finance Association says this is part of a trend which shows that household ownership of durable goods is on the rise. Automobile ownership was up 4.0 million in July 1969. The number of cars owned by households was 69.9 million. This increase is partially due to multiple car ownership.

Dishwasher and clothes dryer ownership also increased from July 1968 to July 1969. Ownership of homes has reached 63.8 per cent of the 62.0 million households in the United States.

With a home, a couple of cars, a color TV set, a clothes dryer and a dishwasher, it would seem that John Q. Public is well on his way to attaining the highest level of affluency in history.

Bone Marrow Transplant Operation A Victory Over Rare Birth Defect

The Camp family knew about birth defects long before their son David was born. Although they had four healthy daughters, the life of one of their nephews had been claimed by a hereditary disease seven years earlier.

Every father wants a son, but Mr. Camp knew that his nephew's illness had been "sex-linked"—that is, girls carry the gene but boys get the illness—and that if his wife bore a son, he would run a 50-50 chance of being afflicted.

When David was born on March 19, 1968 in Wallingford, Conn., his parents and doctor were on the alert. At first, David seemed a fine, healthy looking 7 pound 10 ounce baby. But Dr. Jerome L'Heureux did not relax. He knew that if David was suffering from the same condition as his cousin, the signs might not show up initially.

Three months later, the insidious illness was discovered in laboratory tests. As feared, the diagnosis was sex-linked lymphopenic immunologic deficiency.

The prognosis was not good. Effects of this disease had always destroyed its victims' lives before their first birthday.

Years of Research

Agammaglobulinemia (AGG) was first described in 1953. David's body lacked the normal defense system which helps us fight infections. Even a mild childhood illness could cause his death because of the deficiency in his ability to produce antibodies.

As far as Dr. L'Heureux knew, nothing effective could be done for David.

But when he consulted with his colleagues about the case, one called his attention to the AGG research work of Dr. Robert A. Good at the University of Minnesota.

He contacted Dr. Good and initiated a string of events that led to the first successful bone marrow transplant in history—giving life to one little boy, and giving hope to many others afflicted with immunologic deficiencies.

Dr. Good is one of the many researchers whose work is supported by grants from the National Foundation-March of Dimes. A professor of pediatrics and microbiology at the University of Minnesota, he has been a National Foundation grantee since 1960.

HELPING HER BROTHER, David, is a habit with Doreen Camp. She was the donor for a bone marrow transplant that corrected a rare immunological birth defect in the Connecticut lad.

He and his associates have been conducting a variety of research projects related to birth defects of the immunity system and bodily defenses. To correct such defects, Dr. Good wanted to transplant healthy bone marrow into patients with such defects in order to reconstitute their immunologic systems.

Other investigators had considered this line of treatment, but previous attempts at transplantation had failed because of overwhelming and ultimately fatal—graft-vs.-host reactions.

Most people are familiar with the concept of the GVH reaction today because of the publicity that heart transplants have received. When foreign material enters the body, antibodies tend to build up and attack or reject this material. This is the "rejection reaction"—the body rejects the donor material.

The GVH reaction is essentially the opposite of the rejection reaction. The antibody cells of the graft or donor material attack the host body into which it is transplanted.

The reaction can be minimized only by matching the donor material as closely as possible to that of the patient.

The well-known process of blood typing, i.e., assuring that a person with type A blood is not transfused with type B blood, is analogous to the matching which must be done before a transplant. But the marrow-grafting procedure is much more difficult.

Miracle in Minneapolis

This is where previous attempts had failed and where Dr. Good and his associates succeeded.

By August 1968, the entire Camp family had journeyed to the March of Dimes Birth Defects Research Center in Minneapolis.

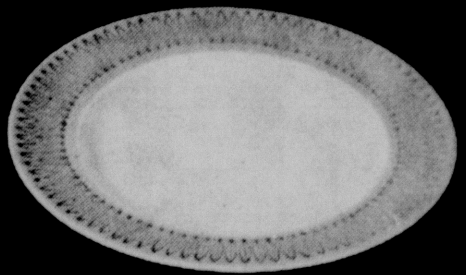

After extensive testing of David's four sisters, nine-year-old Doreen was chosen as the donor. On August 24, the transplant was performed. About two ounces of marrow was withdrawn through a hollow needle from Doreen's hipbone and injected into David's abdominal cavity.

On September 2, Labor Day, David began to take a turn for the worse. But after an initial bout with the dreaded GVH reaction, his symptoms subsided and the donor cells seemed to take hold. A second transplant was required to improve dramatically.

Christmas 1969 was a very merry one for the Camp family. David was home again—a healthy little boy. The doctors' instructions: "Treat him like a normal boy."

MENTAL HEALTH MATTERS

Stanley F. Yolles, M.D., Director
National Institute of Mental Health

THE SENIOR YEARS

"Grow old along with me,
the best is yet to be."

To many, these words of the poet, Robert Browning, may have seemed bitterly untrue. The experiences of others or our own experiences may have suggested that the last part of life is the worst period of all.

But a recent report on a 10-year National Institute of Mental Health study of healthy, aged men, ranging from 65 to 91 years, with the average age 71, indicates that Browning's idea can be right.

The senior years, the study shows, can be full of new, complex, planned activities rather than progressive disengagement from life and social environment. But a rewarding old age is achieved only through concentrated effort and hard work. Satisfaction and avoidance of frustrations are not handed to oldsters on a silver platter.

Today, people are living longer. For many, the senior years may cover a quarter of a century—a period longer than the formative years of growth and early development and almost as long as the total life span was less than 100 years ago.

So far, however, the developments of the later years and the interrelationships of the individual and his environment in those years have received relatively little research attention compared to that given earlier stages of life.

The scientific study of aging, known as gerontology, is just beginning to fill in these sparse areas and will undoubtedly provide future information highly useful in showing us ways to better old-age living.

The Institute study is of this kind of scientific inquiry. Its findings did not support the theory held by some authorities and called the "disengagement theory." This holds that old age is necessarily characterized by a mutual withdrawal by the aging person and his social environment.

Many of the men in the study maintained a high level of social integration over the 10-year study period. Many ranked well on the study's ratings of such things as general outlook, regular activities, the degree to which the person's engagements were passive or active, and the amount, kind, and degree of social interaction.

In view of the large and increasing numbers of aging persons in our population, the importance of gerontology and its research to all of us, whatever age group we are now in, can scarcely be overstated; and we do know enough already to be reasonably sure that there are helpful answers to be found.

About half the total land area of the United States is devoted to farming.

Neilsen-Wittliff Wedding Vows Repeated In Stockholm, Sweden

The candlelighted Chapel of the Ulrikdsdals Castle in Stockholm, Sweden was the scene of the wedding of Miss Lone Bottger Nielsen to Mr. Herman Albert Wittliff III on December 30 at 5:30 p.m.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Gunnar Nielsen of Lidingo, Sweden and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Albert Wittliff, Jr. of Lufkin. The groom is the grandson of Mrs. Winifred McDermott Wittliff of Cameron.

The Reverend Yngve Frykholm performed the ceremony before an altar holding white candles and bouquets of pink tulips in silver containers. The beautiful Romanesque design of the church was further complemented by pink tulips and white candles on the chancel railing and large-flowered pink begonias on the steps leading to the chancel.

The candles on the end of each pew had pink roses attached. Lighting was entirely by candlelight except for the small white electric candles on the tall, slender fir Christmas trees that flanked the altar. A large chandelier hung from the center of the ceiling and was filled with white burning tapers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a diamond white brocade gown which featured a front insert of white satin. It was of Empire design with a jewel neckline and elbow-length sleeves. Her veil, of silk illusion with embroidered edges, was softly gathered and of two lengths. The top layer hung to her waist and the bottom layer fell to the floor. It was held in place by a crystal princess crown.

Sister of the bride, Miss Anne Bottger Nielsen, was maid of honor. She wore a seafair blue Thai silk dress of Empire styling trimmed with white braid in a bead design. Her hair was caught with a pearl bandeau. The mother of the bride wore a gold and silver brocade dress styled along slender lines. The groom's mother was in ice blue satin with a Kelly green sash.

James Ruston Wittliff, brother of the groom, of Lufkin and Donald R. Curry of Ft. Worth served as marshalls.

Dinner and dancing followed in the Ulrikdsdals Wardhus. The table was lighted by white candles in large silver candleabra placed at intervals down the long table. Bouquets of pink roses and white gins together with soft deep blue and white of the china added color to the table.

Attending from the States in addition to the groom's parents and the groomsmen were Miss Onesia Wittliff of Dallas and Miss Celia Wittliff of Lufkin, sisters of the groom, and Mrs. Donald R. Curry of Ft. Worth.

After a wedding trip to Alpbach, Austria in the Alps, the couple will live in Lufkin.

PRENUPTIAL PARTIES

The bride's parents held the traditional "Lysning" in their home on December 28. The house was decorated with pink tulips and pink carnations. As is the custom in Sweden, the guests brought gifts which were opened and displayed. Later in the evening the groom's parents entertained the members of the wedding party and relatives with dinner at the Stallmarestagarden. The table was centered with a bouquet of roses and the flags of Denmark, Sweden, and the United States.

POLLY'S POINTERS

New Liquid Dyes
Work in Washer

By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY—Like Barb, I had trouble dyeing articles satisfactorily but the new liquid dyes work beautifully in my washing machine. I use HOT water, pour in the dye, mix thoroughly BEFORE putting in the article. Let it go through the full wash cycle twice. Do NOT let it rinse in between. After running through the wash cycle twice, I use three cold-water rinses or until the water runs out clear. I have even dyed things as large as bedsprings. When rewashing, use a cold-water detergent and wash the dyed article separately from the other wash. A small amount of dye is sure to wash out but not enough to hurt the looks of the item.—LUELLA

DEAR POLLY—When you finish dyeing and rinsing anything, put it in cold water with a handful of salt to set the color. I also soak things I buy that might fade in cold water with salt.—JUDY

DEAR GIRLS—There are those who scoff at the idea of using salt to set the color but I do it. Annie has a good suggestion in her letter where she warned against letting water from the faucet run onto the recently dyed article while rinsing. Fill the container being used and then put in the garment. This is when the job is being done in a big pan or tub and not in the washer.—POLLY

CTC ADOPTS NEW COLLEGE CALENDAR

Central Texas College classes will be scheduled in accordance with the newly adopted "Common Calendar" effective the fall semester, 1970, according to Dean Kenneth P. Walker.

This means that Central Texas College beginning dates for the fall semester will range from the last week in August to the first week in September; and that the fall semester will end before Christmas. The spring semester will begin around the middle of January and end not later than the middle of May.

Dean Walker explained that this new calendar will keep CTC semester schedules in line with the majority of other state colleges which are adopting the "Common Calendar" approved by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, and mandatory for all state colleges by the fall semester, 1973.

Crisp and Simple

Crisp, sweet wedges of iceberg lettuce with Western Garden Dressing can be served in two contrasting meal situations. Serve the cool green lettuce, sprinkled with orange and red dressing, to introduce a hearty entree for a semi-formal dinner. When a spur-of-the-moment barbecue meal is suggested, simply cut the heads of lettuce and arrange them on a tray surrounding a pitcher of dressing.

Sweet, flavored western lettuce is selected when the head gives with a gentle squeeze.

Western Garden Dressing

1 medium carrot, grated 1/2 cup Italian dressing
3 radishes, thinly sliced Iceberg lettuce
1 green onion, minced

Stir the ingredients together; chill. Makes 3/4 cup. Core, rinse and drain lettuce; chill in lettuce crisper or plastic bag. Cut head into quarters or 6ths. Spoon dressing over the top when ready to serve.

Give Your Trees Winter Care Now

By J. D. Moore

Now is the time to give trees some winter care.

Prune and spray fruit and nut trees, prepare soil around all trees and shrubs, plow, fertilize and get garden soils ready for vegetable gardens, get information on adapted varieties, plant fruit, nut and shade trees and shrubs, "clean up junk" such as tin cans, bottles and remove trash in general.

Who can tell - a clean up campaign might help locate some long lost item - for sure would improve the appearance of a neighborhood as well as a residence.

Pruning trees - The cardinal rule to follow in pruning trees and ornamental plants is the same as that which applies to fruit bearing plants. If you have no good reason for pruning a plant, put the tools away without using them.

The purpose of pruning is to remove unwanted growth as outlined here in order of importance: 1. To remove dead wood or winter killed growth, 2. To balance the amount of top or branch growth on a plant with the amount of root system at the time of transplanting, 3. To remove parts of plants that are injured seriously by disease or insects,

4. To repair injuries to the plant by weather conditions, such as storms, 5. To rejuvenate older plants by removing older stems and branches to encourage vigor.

orous new young stems to take their place, 6. To maintain or develop a desired size or form, and 7. To produce more or better flowers or fruit.

Use a dormant oil spray - After trees are pruned, a dormant oil spray should be applied. The oil spray cannot be applied while foliage is on the trees. The purpose of the oil spray is to control scale insects.

The recommended amount of dormant oil for pecan trees is 4 gallons of a 97 percent oil emulsion to 100 gallons of water. For smaller amounts use 3 tablespoons of oil to one gallon of water.

Fruit trees as well as pecan trees should be sprayed in January or February.

Spray shrubbery - All shrubbery should be trimmed and sprayed. A good spray material for shrubbery could contain 1 tablespoon summer oil, 1 tablespoon Diazinon mixed with 1 gallon of water. Of course, a number of brand name dormant sprays are available at local stores.

A note on planting shrubbery - Plant shrubbery at least 1 yard away from your house. Helpful information is available on planning a landscape program at the county extension office. Also spray guides are available.

DPS Asks Help In Search For Hit - Run Driver

AUSTIN--The Texas Department of Public Safety today issued a special public appeal for any kind of information which might lead to the apprehension of a hit-and-run driver whose car struck and killed a young highway patrolman on US 80 east of Weatherford, Parker County, at 2:45 a.m., Sunday, December 7.

Patrolman Douglas Thompson, 26, married and the father of a five-year-old son, was killed by the hit-and-run car while standing at the side of the road interviewing a traffic violator. The car sped on at high rate of speed after the impact without any sign of hesitation.

Specifically, the DPS is seeking information that might help locate the killer car which has been identified as a white, 1960 model Ford "Fairlane" or "Fairlane 500" four-door with damage to the front right side. The damage included the loss of the right front fender ornament, which was found at the scene, along with a 43-inch long chrome strip from the right front door. Also found at the scene were the first two letters, "Fa", which had been knocked off the "Fairlane" emblem on the side of the right front fender.

Reason for the renewed appeal for assistance in locating this car, said Col. Wilson E. Speir, DPS Director, is the belief that several reported leads which didn't prove out may have led people to think the death car had been located.

The DPS called upon any citizen who might have information he thinks would be helpful in this case to contact the nearest office of the Highway Patrol or Texas Rangers.

New Extension Program Plans $1 Billion Ag Boost

COLLEGE STATION

A new program designed to increase agricultural income in Texas by $1 billion by the end of the 1970 crop year was unveiled here January 14 by Dr. John E. Hutchison, Director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, during the third annual Extension Press Day at Texas A&M University.

"3.7% in '76" is the slogan for the new program aimed at upping the state's present agricultural income totals of about $2.75 billion by another $1 billion during the next seven years, Director Hutchison told the approximately 25 mass media representatives from major agricultural magazines, daily newspapers, television and radio stations.

Dr. Hutchison said that extension's intensified educational activities directed in this new program envision increases in income for producers of the state.

"Program efforts, to be consolidated in cooperation with other agencies and organizations concerned with Texas agriculture, will be focused on reaching the full potential of each economically important agricultural commodity produced in the state," he emphasized.

The Director explained that the Extension Service will provide the plan for growth and increased income through production guidelines for each agricultural commodity.

"The guides will be based on latest research information relating to increasing production and marketing efficiency. Support of the total agricultural community of the state will be required to achieve full realization of our overall objective," Hutchison said.

As the new program is launched within each county, projections of income potentials will be provided for each economically important enterprise of that county, in an effort to reach the statewide goal.

County Program Building Committees then will study the county projections and set an annual goal and long-range income goal to be reached by the target date. "This will serve to make the program a self-regenerating one," Director Hutchison noted.

Dr. Hutchison, in summarizing the Extension Press Day presentations, said that complex and sophisticated techniques will be required to give a forward thrust to Extension education programs during the 1970's, which are designed to bring about the gains of $1 billion in agricultural income to farmers and ranchers of the state.

"We believe that the effect of the newly-launched program will be mutually supporting with other programs already underway to increase agricultural income," he said.

FIRST AID

Advanced First Aid Course will be conducted at the Fire Station Recreation Hall Monday January 26, through Friday January 30 7 p.m. till 9 p.m. each day. All firemen are urged to attend, all Law Enforcement personnel as well as the public who are interested in taking this advanced First Aid Course, conducted by a member of the Texas Public Safety Department, Austin.

ASCS News

By Alva E. Sanders
Farmers planning to sign up the wheat, feed grain, or cotton programs are reminded that they have various choices to make.

This is especially true for producers who have both a wheat allotment and a feed grain base. A continuation of the substitution provision enables them to substitute wheat for feed grain or vice-versa -- but they must make their intentions to comply with both programs known and sign up accordingly.

The substitution provision is only one of the several options open to farmers planning to participate in the 1970 voluntary farm programs. Diversion provisions of the wheat and feed grains programs should be considered. Farmers with small allotments of wheat and cotton or with small feed grain bases should also check out the provisions for small farms.

Price - support payments will be made and price-support loans will be available to farmers who sign up in the wheat, feed grain, and cotton programs and comply with the program provisions. (The price-support payment for wheat is in the form of domestic marketing certificates.) Diversion payments will be made to feed grain and wheat farmers who voluntarily divert more acreage than required for program participation.

Wheat and feed grain farmers who choose not to participate in the voluntary farm programs will not be eligible for price-support loans, payments, or marketing certificates. They may produce the crops without restriction, however. Cotton farmers who do not participate in the cotton program will not be eligible for price - support loans or payments. Penalties will be imposed if their 1970 cotton acreage exceeds their 1970 allotment.

Sign-up period for the wheat, feed grain and cotton programs is Feb. 2 through March 20 at the County ASCS Office. Farmers are urged to make careful study of the program provisions between now and sign-up time. Farmers wanting additional details or explanations are asked to phone or visit the Milam County ASCS Office.

Screwworm cases in the Southwestern states for 1969 totaled only 219 against 9,268 confirmed cases in 1968.

The past year was described by officials of the eradication program as the best in the history of the program from the standpoint of confirmed cases.

Stockmen are advised to keep checking animals and when worms are found, to submit samples to the laboratory at Mission for positive identification.

DOORS OF YOE

By Jane Callaway

Last week was that L-O-N-G one--dreaded, nerve-wracking, ruinous. Exam week! Almost makes a basket case out of me. If it does all that to me (and a few others), think about the teachers-- they have all that grading and averaging to do. Do think about that for a while!

There are days when our Yoe High Faculty could use our kind thoughts I am sure. Well, now we have four months before another "exam-time." The moral to all this--do the necessary studying every day.

Our basketball team is certainly on the "Victory Road." In the West Lake game, Robert Brashear broke the school scoring record and the team scoring record was broken also. That was really OUR night. Congratulations to the team and Coach Murdock for a great job. The game against Caldwell was an exciting one from what I hear--Johnny Steamer was high point man.

If you want to hear about a dream that would top all others, ask Renee C. She would be more than happy to tell you all about it. And Renee, isn't that a new necklace?

Edward, I heard about those jokes you have been telling in English. Elizabeth, you were up before 9 o'clock? Carolyn is still in shock.

It's great to see Bill Perrin out of his leg cast. Hope the crutches will soon be gone.

I read this last week--makes you think a little. "Sooner or later a man, if he is wise, discovers that life is a mixture of good days and bad, victory and defeat, give and take.

He learns that it doesn't pay to be a sensitive soul--that he should let things go over his head like water off a duck's back.

He learns that he who loses his temper usually loses.

He learns that all men have burnt toast for breakfast now and then, and that he shouldn't take the other fellow's grouch too seriously.

He learns that carrying a chip on his shoulder is the easiest way to get into a fight.

He learns that the quickest way to become unpopular is to carry tales and gossip about others.

He learns that most people are human and that it doesn't do any harm to smile and say "good morning" even if it is raining.

He learns that most of the other fellows are as ambitious as he is, that they have brains that are as good or better, and that hard work, and not cleverness, is the secret of success.

He learns that it doesn't matter so much who gets the credit so long as the work shows a profit.

He comes to realize that the business could run along perfectly without him.

He learns to sympathize with the youngsters coming into the business, because he remembers how bewildered he was when he first started out.

He learns not to worry when he does not make a hit every time, because experience has shown if he always gives his best, his average will break pretty well.

He learns that no man ever got to first base alone, and that it is only through cooperative effort that we move on to better things.

He learns that the fellows are not any harder to get along with in one place than another, and that "getting along" depends about 98 percent on himself.

QUOTE: Don't depend too much on the future; so often it comes before you are ready for it.

TIPS FOR OUTDOORSMEN

by Vern Sanford

CLEANING A BOAT—A fishing trip can get a boat in one holy mess. Get the rig clean while on your way home by pouring three or four gallons of soapy water into the boat (with drain plug closed). The sloshing back and forth of the soapy water in the boat as you travel will give you a bang-up thorough cleaning job.

DRY WOOD FOR FIRE—Sometimes dry wood is scarce around a campsite. But dead trees can be found most anywhere. Locate one near camp, tie a stone to one end of a rope, throw stone over a dead limb and pull. Your firewood should come down with a crash.

VERSATILE REELS—Unlike a casting reel, both the spincast and the spinning reel can successfully cast a fly. However, the spincast reel is the least adaptable of the two. But the spinning reel, using a bubble, does an excellent job.

Know How To Use Pesticides

When properly handled and applied, pesticides provide an effective and inexpensive means for minimizing and controlling the damage and discomfort by pests in the home.

Proper use, points out Dr. Jack Price, Extension leader - agricultural chemicals, is more easily achieved if the user has certain basic information about chemicals, formulation equipment, application, handling procedures, storage and disposal.

Organic and inorganic compounds are used for pest control; however, organic chemicals are the major source for insecticides. Organic materials are also used as herbicides and even metal containing organic compounds are used in fungicides.

Plant derivatives are also used as pesticides. Therefore, says Price, it is important to recognize that many different chemicals are used as pesticides and that different products may require different use procedures.

Pesticides are available singly or in combination with other chemicals. Formulations include emulsifiable concentrates, wettable powders, dusts and granules. Dusts and fine sprays are generally more susceptible to drift and if this is a problem, granules may be the formulation of choice if the desired pest control can be obtained.

Wettable powders, continues Price, may be less hazardous than formulations containing oil if protective measures are less than optimum. An oil soluble formulation is in many cases more easily absorbed through the skin than water soluble formulations or wettable powders that are mixed with water.

In all cases, cautions Price, select the pesticides recommended for a specific use by a competent authority and follow label directions to the letter.

Accidental home poisonings are a serious problem and in a majority of cases children under five years of age are involved. The home, says Price, contains an arsenal of potentially dangerous chemicals which include medicines, silver polish, detergents, moth balls, petroleum solvents, cleaners and pesticides to name a few.
